Study Tour

Study tours are usually organised by your programme. You will get a chance to visit some world-renowned universities and institutes, such as Emerson College, New York University, and Taipei National University of the Arts. You can talk and discuss with the local students and even screen each other's works.

Insurance

Your safety throughout the tour is included in our insurance. However, it will not cover your trip to another city or country during the tour. Think twice before you go for adventure.

The 69th Berlinale, Germany

Film Festival Tour

Film festival tours are very different from the study tours. Students can feel free to watch any movies designed by the festival. There are workshops and seminars arranged for aspiring filmmakers like you. There will not be many group activities to hinder you from the cinemas.

We will arrange lunch or dinner meet-up to discuss the films you have watched. Watch out for the celebrities and stars, you may have a chance to dine with some industry's heavyweights.
